

Maxville Area

June 2010

(Thanks to Mark Pickles for the photos!)

Steve easily crossing the steep drop-off, water, and muddy climb out of the deeply incised creek. Not all went so smoothly.

As usual, the only casualty was Bruce's YJ, which had the tailpipe smashed virtually completely closed when the back of the rig dropped onto a boulder.